

DevOps

Git

Step 1: Create a repository on GitHub and name it "DevOps"

Step 2: note you had a git bash in your system

Step 3: Create a project folder on your local machine

Step 4: Now open that project folder select more option and then select git bash

Step 5: git bash screen open where you can enter command and in this first step we will connect our local repository to github

Step 6: git clone https://github.com/Cimage-Patna/devops_ws_8001.git

Step 7: check git status

Step 8: git add .

Step 9: git commit -m "added"

Step 10: git push

Ec2

Step1: create an aws account

Step2: after create search ec2 on search bar

Step 3: launch instance

Step 4: Follow the steps to create an instance like first give the name, choose OS(ubuntu), create a pair key and select public IP and allow http traffic from network and then create an instance

Step5: Instance will create within a minute and it gives IP address

CI/CD pipeline

Step 1: Create workflow file

Step 2: Configure GitHub Secrets

EC2_USER

EC2_HOST

EC2_KEY

Step 3: Set up deployment script

Automated testing

Build process

EC2 deployment

